ABOUT FF SPEAK BOLD ITALIC

FF Speak is a humanist Sans Serif. When I was working on FF Speak, my intention was to design a typeface that could capture the tone of voice of young people talking. So I made the letter forms very vivid and smooth. When they speak, they use different intonations, according to the situation. Therefore, I made a light version for talking intimately, and the bold version for speaking out loud. I also added some extra ligatures and I think, my font is very legible, both in headlines and text. A unique font that is like a new voice you want to listen to.
